WEDNESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 7.

SENTENCED TO-MARRIAGE !- A case recently tried before the Clonmel (English) Assizes was brought to a singular and novel termination by the presiding Judge. The parties in the case were a young man and a young woman, both of whom claimed possession of a rural property one by virtue of an ancient lease, and the other under a will. They were in Court for the purpose of giving their testimony, when a bright idea occurred to the Magistrate, a Mr. Clarke, who interrupted the case to say :

"It strikes me that there is a pleasant and easy way to terminate this law suit. The plaintiff appears to be a respectable young man, and this is a very nice young woman. [Laughter.] They can both get married and live happy on this farm. If they go on with law proceedings it will be frittered away between the lawyers, who, I am sure, are not ungallant enough to ed and said she was quite willing to marry the plaintiff. The latter on being asked if he would wed the young woman gallantly responded, "Most undoubtedly," Mr. Clarke remarked that the suggestion occurred to him by instinct on seeing the young couple. A verdict was subsequently entered for plaintiff on condition of his promise to marry defendant within two months, a stay of execution being put on the verdict till the marriage ceremony is completed. The counsel gave the young lady such an unmerciful "chaffing" on her consent, which many in Court thought should have been first obtained from plaintiff, that she left the Court in tears. - Baltimore American.

THECELEBRATED WHEATLEY MILLS AND WATER POWER AND ABOUT 940 ACRES OF LAND FOR SALE-Under and by virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of Fauquier county, pronounced on the 19th of April, 1872, in the chancery suit styled "Bank of Commerce vs. Wheatley," therein pending, the undersigned, appointed special commission ers for that purpose, will sell, at the front door of the Court House of Fauquier county, on MONDAY, the 22d day of August, 1872, the following valuable REAL ESTATE, the property of George T. Wheatley and the late Garland Wheatley, deceased, lying on both sides of the Rappahannock river, in the counties of Fau-quier and Culpeper, about four miles below Rappahannock station, a station on the O., A. & M. R. R., about 52 miles from the city of Washington. This property embraces the very finest WATER POWER and some of the finest farming lands on the Rappahannock river, as follows: ABOUT 325 ACRES in the county of Culpeper, upon the Rappahannock river, and embracing the Water Power and privileges per-taining thereto. ABOUT 613 ACRES in the county of Fauquier, upon the Rappahannock river, immediately opposite to the 325 acres, embracing the Water Power of said river. There is an abundance of timber on these lands. The Water Power is inexhaustible, the river front extending about 1½ miles with a fall of 44 feet. Before the late war the "Wheatley Mills" were the most celebrated in this section of the country, and together with the adjacent Real Estate no more favorable location for a manufacturing town can be found in the State of Virginia. The railroad station is accessible by a level road and by water.

Terms of Sale: Cash sufficient to pay costs of suit and expenses of sale; for the residue the purchaser to execute bonds with approved personal security, in equal amounts, payable in one, two, three a d four years from day of sale, with interest from said date. Title to be retained as further security until last instalment of purchase money is paid, and the land subject to resale if the parchaser fail to comply with the terms of sale. The commissioners of sale are authorized by said decree to subdivide said real estate into smaller tracts if deemed advisable, and to sell the same in whole or in part together, with said water powers, at private sale, subject to the approval of the Court.
